The Mariners Grave

I remember the night it was stormy and wet
And dismayed dashed the dark wave
The rain and the sleet cold and heavily did beat O'er the mariners new dug grave

I remember twas down in a dark some dale
And near to a dreary cave
Where the wild winds waile around the wondrous pale
That I saw the mariners grave

I remember how slowly the burrows trod
And how sad was the look they gave
As they reeled there load near its last abode
And gazed on the mariners grave

I remember no sound did the silence break
As the corps to the earth they gave Save the night birds shriek and the coffins creak
As it sunk in the mariners grave

I remember the tear that so slowly slid
Down the cheek of a messmate so brave
It fell on the lid and soon was hid
For closed was the mariners grave

My Mother Dear

There was a place in child hood that I remember well
And there a voice of sweetest tones bright fairy tales to tell
And gentle words with fond embrace were given with joy to ~~embrace~~^{me} When I was in that happy place upon my mother knee
My mother dear my mother dear
My gentle mother dear

When fairy tales were ended good night she softly said
And kissed and laid me down to sleep within my tiny bed
And holy words she taught me there methinks I yet can see Her angle eyes as close I knelt beside
my mother knee
My mother dear &c

In the sickness of my child hood the perils of my prime
The sorrows of my riper years the cares of every time
When doubt of danger weighed me down then pleading all for me
It was a fervent prayer to heaven that bent my mother knee
My mother dear &c

My Mother Dear
Can I cease to remember or e'er forget to prove
The vows of holy gratitude the fullness of my love
And when thou'rt fickle mother dear then rest thine arm on me
And let Ocherished child protect its aged mothers knee
(My Mother's Dear my Mother Dear
(My gentle Mother Dear)

Willie on the Dark Blue sea

Willie's on the dark blue sea.
He's gon far o'er the main
And many a weary day will pass
Ere he'll come back again
When blow gentle winds o'er the dark blue sea
Bid the storm king stay his hand
And bring my Willie back to me
To his own dear native land

I love my Willie best of all
He e'er was true to me
But lone some dreary are the hours
Since first he went to sea
When blow gentle winds &c

There's danger on the water now
I hear the blond billy cry
And moaning voices seem to speak
Born out of the cloudy sky
When blow gentle winds &c

Willie on the Dark Blue Sea

I see the vivid lightning's flash
And hark the thunder roar O'h Father save my Willie from
The storm king mighty power
Then blow gentle winds &c

And as she spoke the lightning ceased
Hush'd was the thunder's roar.
And Willie clasp her in his arms
To roam the sea no more
Now blow gentle winds o'er the dark blue sea
No more we'll stay thy hand
Since Willie safe at home with me
In his own dear native land

Farewell but not for ever

Farewell my love may do not weep
Those tears become not beauty
One kind embrace befor we part
One kiss and then to duty

Behold our vessel's anchor weigh'd
Her topsails how they shiver
One kiss my love and then farewell
But not farewell forever

Those sighs my love unmans my heart
Tho' doom'd I am to leave you
My only treasure do not grieve
For think I would deceive you

But when the sails thine bosom swell
Alas we then must sever
Owe kiss my love and then farewell
But not farewell for ever

For ever means times out of date
Of which men make but laughter
For if we part for ever here
(We surely meet hereafter)

Peace sweet girl

Peace sweet girl to doubt me now
For still my heart is true
Or I must yet repeat a vow
Of love only you
How absence changed thy ~~truth~~ ^{love} for me
No more more farred youth
A h or no for once I never have Nor ever will doubt thy truth
But let not others flattery love
Thy heart estrange from me
You'll never find one more sincere Spongest all that sight for the Oft I've wander'd weary too

Thro' India's distant glades
And o'er Columbid's plains have strayed
With many a lovely maid
But e'en the fairest of them all
Could not my heart ~~my heart~~ ^{alarm}
It beats for thee and only thee
Its fondest truest charms
Then let not other flattery love

Our way across the sea

Home fare the well the ocean storm is over
The weary pennant was the sea and winds
Fast spurs the bark and now the lessing shores
Sinks in the wave with those we leave behind

Home fare the well

Land of the free

No tongue can tell

The love I bare to the

We wreath no bowl to drink a gay good bye
Nor tears would fall unbidden in the wine
And while reflected was the mournful eye
The sparkling surface e'en would cease to shine
Then fare fare well

Once more once more

The ocean's swell

Now hides my native shores

See where yon star's diamond light displayed
Now sun now hid behind the swelling sail
Hope rides in gladness on its streaming ray
And bids us on and bide the faving gale

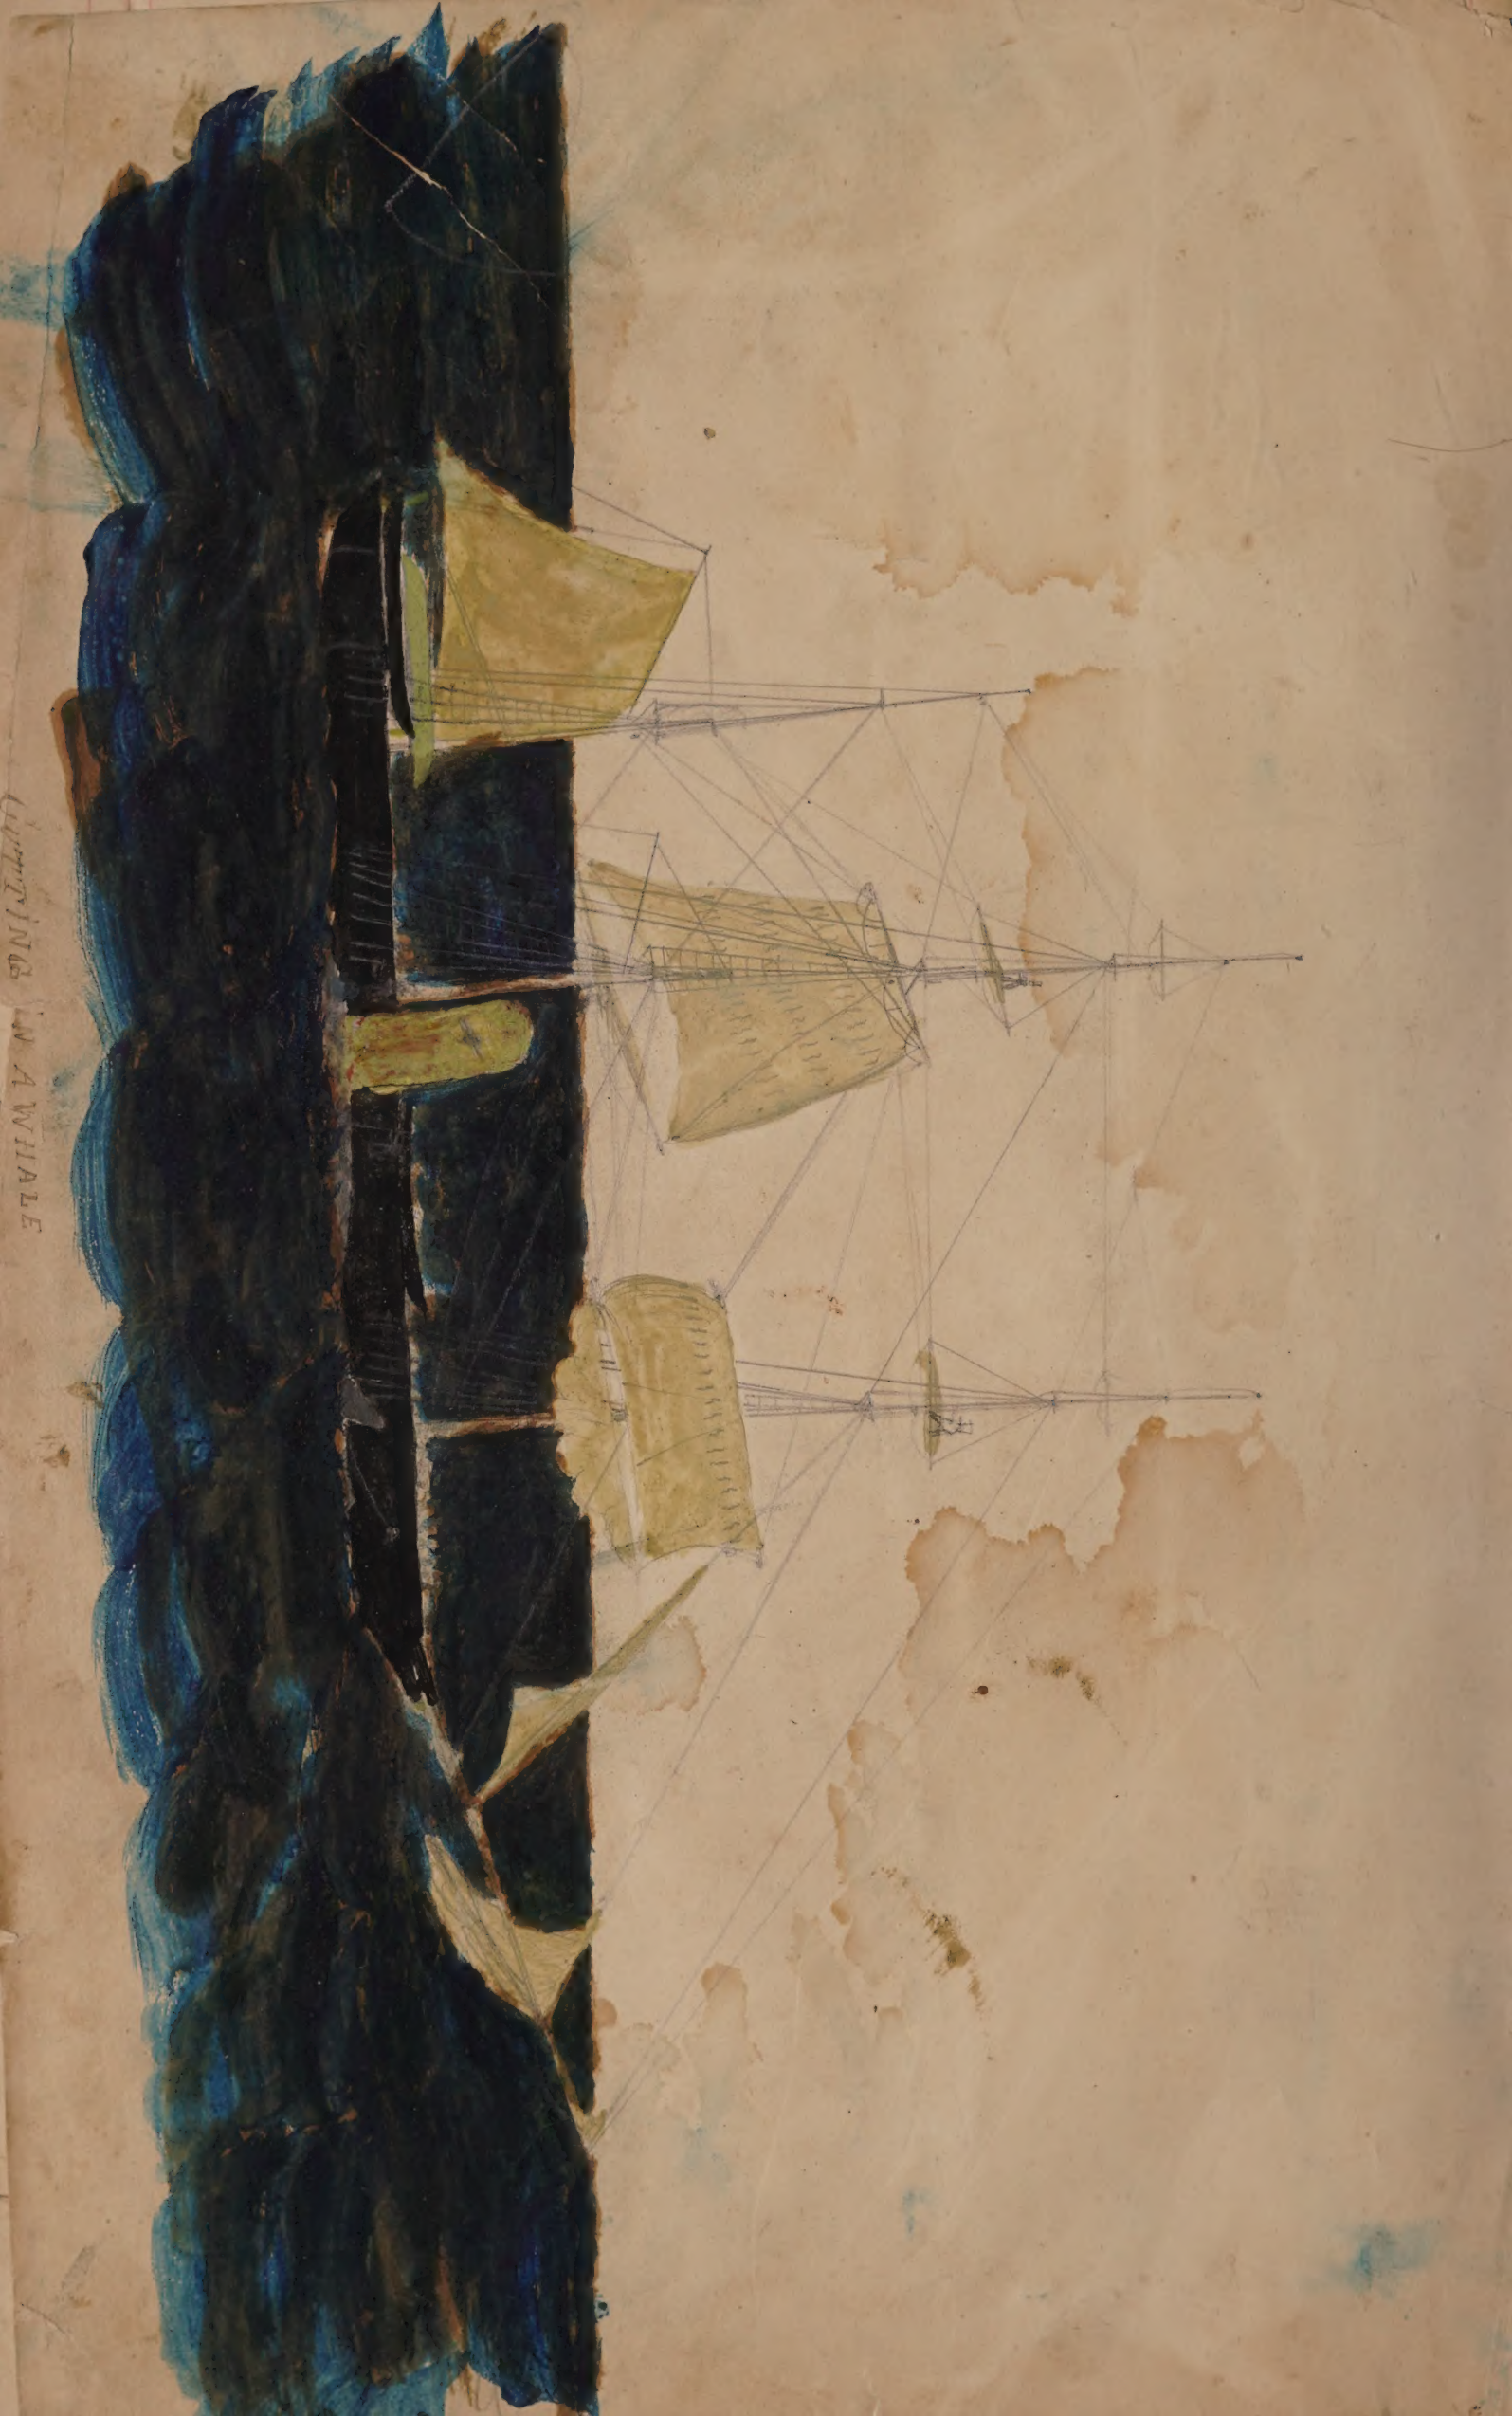

Then hope we bend

In joy to thee

And careless wind
